FEDERAL QUESTION
FDA 85 FR 13312

The Cause of Actions on 04/13/2026; 4/16/2026; 05/16/2026, 07/01/2025 alleging use of a directed energy weapon to cause pain is already too close to a Federal rule by the FDA banning ESD ' s. Banned devices: Electrical stimulation Devices for Self-Injurious or Aggressive Behavior. Directed energy makes no difference - it ' s the same thing Active Denial Technology using similar methods in inflicting pain to the skin affecting movement or behavior or discourage speech. While Active Denial and LRAD are intended for crowd dispersal, the plaintiff ' s targeting is more continues with longer durations - similar to ESD ' s used to tame behavior. The FDA ' s ban stemmed from causing pain, psychological (suffering), and physical risk.

Prayer For Relief

The Plaintiff, Stephen Watson, seeks permanent injunctive relief from the Justice Department and FBI due to psychological suffering, irreparable harm and also injunctive relief for family: Karen Ann Day (mother); Sisters: Alice,Teresa, Esther, Christa Watson by same last name.

Monetary damages amount requested in controversy since Bivens may be applicable through discovery is $237,363 from loss of income, psychological suffering, irreparable harm based on a 1992 Canadian MK Ultra settlement of $100,000 adjusted for inffaltion.
